

Washington, DC – On Sunday, August 1st, Congressman Harry Teague will present Korean War Veteran Carl Cox, of Alamogordo, with three medals for his service. During his time in the Army, Mr. Cox, a resident of Alamogordo who served not only in Korea, but also in Hawaii and the Philippines, never received the medals due to him following his heroic service. His daughter, Rochelle Cox, reached out to Congressman Teague for help in receiving her father's commendations.

Congressman Teague will present Mr. Cox with the Defense Service Medal, Korean Service Medal and United Nations Service Medal. Mr. Cox's wife and daughter will be in attendance. Interested media is invited to attend.
